SMITHVILLE, OHIO

Foreword . . .

The past year at Smithville High School can be relived only in our memories. Therefore, it is the hope, aim, and purpose of this book to record the joys and achievements of the year 1954 and 1955 so that they will be stamped indelibly in our memories as long as this book is with us.

We have used the "signature" as the theme throughout this book. The FABRICA can be as personal to its owner as his signature on its pages.

Class History

Let us turn back the clock of time into the deep dark past to see how the mighty class of '55 has matured during its four glorious years in the halls of learning of Smithville High.

First as - - FRESHMEN

Here we see dimly a crowd of awkward, bashful freshmen entering the doors of Smithville High on the first day of school, 1951. Upon closer inspection, we recognize several faces and our memories of our Freshman year come sharply into focus.

The first several weeks were spent in getting acquainted with our new classmates, most of which came from Madisonburg. We also learned to know our new advisor, Mrs. Murray, better.

Our first item of business was to elect our officers which would lead us through the coming year. These competent leaders were chosen:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Roger Ramseyer
Vice-President	-				-			Maxine Sheets
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Marion Falb
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Jim Musser
Student Council	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Bonnie Wagers Gene Kauffman

With these leaders behind us we set out to make our mark in history. But not before the Sophomores made their mark on us by initiating us thoroughly in November. We soon recovered from these horrors and settled down to business vowing that next year we would more than get even for what was done to us.

In December we enjoyed ourselves at a skating party held at Madisonburg.

We did indeed make an excellent start on our mark in history. Six of our boys participated both in basketball and baseball. The reserve cheerleaders were chosen from our class. In addition many class members were active in music and speech activities, making our first year in high school a very enjoyable and profitable one.

Next as - - SOPHOMORES

As we set our clock of time ahead one year and adjust our memories to the Sophomore year we see many new faces. Ah yes, they are our new classmates from Marshallville, whom we soon learned to know quite well.

Because of our increased size, two home rooms and two advisors were needed to keep us under control. In addition to Mrs. Murray, we had a new advisor, Mr. Amstutz.

Again we elected competent leaders:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Roger Ramseyer
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Jack Snoddy
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Rowena Garman
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Bonnie Wagers
Student Council	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Marilyn Shaffer Gene Kauffman
Sergeant at Arms	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Richard Snyder

After much discussion blue and gray were chosen as our class colors, and after what seemed an eternity these colors could be seen throughout the school in the form of our sweaters, each displaying to good advantage our emblem, a four-leaf clover.

Looking ahead to the future, we began raising money for our Senior trip by sponsoring candy and bake sales.

To satisfy our social craving two parties were held, one at the school and one a skating party.

Again our class was well represented in all activities and phases of school life. Thus our days as underclassmen came to a close and we eagerly awaited our Junior year when we would return as upperclassmen.

Then as - - - JUNIORS

Turning our clocks ahead once more, we see most of the same familiar faces, but this time with the dignity of upperclassmen. Under the guidance of our advisors, Mrs. Murray and Mr. Amstutz, the following officers were elected:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Roger Ramseyer
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Gene Kaufman
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Maxine Sheets
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Bonnie Wagers
Student Council	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Phyllis Hochstetler
									Jack Snoddy
Social Chairmen	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Rowena Garman
									Ronny Singer
Sergeant at Arms	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	John Schrock

With painstaking care we selected our class rings and after much waiting the rings arrived. Now the flash of gold could be seen on nearly every Junior's finger.

Even as Juniors a good number of our boys proved valuable on the varsity basketball team and on the baseball team. From our class also came the varsity cheerleaders to spur them on to victory.

After much hard work by the director, Mrs. Ramseyer, and the cast the class play, "Home Sweet Homicide" was given on April 2. Here we proved that we could be actors in addition to our other accomplishments.

Our Junior year was climaxed by the Junior-Senior banquet which was simply "Out of this World." Even though our treasury was sadly depleted after this venture, it was greatly enjoyed by all.

As this year drew to a close we realized that we had but one more year in dear old Smithville High and we resolved to make the most of it when we returned as Seniors the next fall.

And finally as - - SENIORS

As we turn our clocks ahead for the last time we see the same familiar faces, but something new has been added—the pride and respect that goes along with being a Senior. With the help and guidance of our advisors, Mrs. Murray and Mr. Clark, we set out to make this, our last year, an outstanding one.

From the 58 members of our class these capable officers were chosen:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Roger Ramseyer
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Richard Snyder
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Maxine Sheets
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Betty McCay
Student Council			-	-	-	-	-	-	Martha Hutchison
									Ronnie Singer
Social Chairmen	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Bonnie Wagers
									Gene Kauffman
Sergeant at Arms	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Nathan Yoho

In the early months of school the election for student council president was held. After a spirited campaign, the Senior candidate, Jack Snoddy, was elected.

Again we used our acting talent when we presented our Senior class play, "Meet Me in St. Louis" on December 2. With Mrs. Murray directing, it was a success in spite of disagreeable weather on the night of the performance.

In addition to selling concessions at the basketball games we had two big money-making projects which fattened up our treasury considerably. The class co-operated splendidly when we fed the Akron Milk Producers Association on January 22 and the NEOSBA on March 21.

We had a very unusual class for over one half of the boys took part in some sport. We know they enjoyed this very much and would give anything to be back with that fighting spirit next year.

The highlight of our high school career was realized on April 27 when we left for Washington. We were thrilled indeed to be the first class in Smithville's history to be given time off from school for the class trip. 49 Seniors along with Mrs. Murray and Mr. Kasapis arrived in Washington, D. C., where we enjoyed the time of our lives and one that we shall never forget. It was then that we realized that all our working, scrimping, and saving had not been in vain. Our trip completed we arrived back in Smithville on May 2 much wiser and sleepier.

On May 7 the Junior class invited us to a very enjoyable banquet at Smithville Inn, after which we resorted to our own devices to provide entertainment for the rest of the night and probably longer.

On May 13 we had our last class party in the form of a chicken roast at the Smithville Community Park.

Our Baccalaureate service was held on May 22 and on May 26 Commencement exercises ended our school life in Smithville High.

We tried our best to accomplish our aims while in high school but whether we did or not will be decided by those we leave behind. With our motto, "Aim high, and hold your aim" to guide us, we know that members of the class of '55 will go far in whatever they choose to do.

Class Prophecy

The class of '55 has been looking toward this day for many months. They are all meeting at the Jim Hohenshil ranch for a class reunion after being out of school for 15 years. Mrs. Hohenshil (Ruth Drake) has worked hard for the last week preparing for the big reunion. Margaret Hostetler, the Home Ec. teacher at Smithville, is helping to prepare the meal for the occasion. Ed Graber, the multimillionaire who owns 3000 acres of farm land N.E. of Marshallville, has just arrived in his Cadillac. With him is his housekeeper, Barbara Dickason.

Martha Hutchison, interior decorator and Ernie George, a noted artist have decorated the front lawn for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snoddy (Bonnie Wagers) and family, who own Smithville Inn, are furnishing the chicken for the dinner.

Mary Ann Hahn, head cook at the Inn is going to help serve the dinner.

Betty Bogner, nurse at the Akron City Hospital, and Barbara Butzer, a telephone operator in Wooster are out watching the children who are playing ball in the meadow.

Dr. and Mrs. Carroll Eggeman are just arriving. Carroll is now a prosperous veterinarian.

Following them up the lane are Ronnie Singer, a geologist, who has just returned from a fishing trip in Canada, and Dick Snyder, an ambassador to Pakistan.

Nate Yoho, head coach at Bowling Green and Al Wainio, Postmaster in Wooster, are discussing current matters with Paul Steiner, Vocational Ag. teacher, Richard Ratzel, Sec. of Agriculture, and John Jolliff, Wayne County Soil Conservationist.

Listening to the conversation are Paul Wertz, a wrestler, commonly known as Powerful Paul the Whiskered Marvel, and also Bill Stetler, his manager.

Lying on the glider on the porch, we find Roland Groves, a mattress tester, at his usual occupation, that of sleeping.

Under a shade tree, we find Janet Mumaw and Rebecca Hartzler who have just returned from a missionary trip in Africa. They are talking to the Rev. Ralph Smucker, who has a new church located on the edge of Carl Byler's large dairy farm. Carl's farm, along with Mr. and Mrs. John Schrock's (Rowena Garman) dairy farm furnishes the milk for Sunset Dairies in Smithville. Sunset Dairy is co-owned by Roger Ramseyer and Don Zimmerly.

Suddenly we hear a blood-curdling scream from the barn. Upon investigation we find that one of Marvin Krabil's sons has fallen through the hay hole. Marvin is the owner of the Pure-Oil Station in Smithville.

Close behind him are Maxine Sheets and Carmen Estes, both registered nurses at Cleveland City Hospital. Also Doctor Don Stuckey comes to see if he could be of any help.

Gene Kauffman, president of Kauffman Rubber Company, which specializes in mudflaps, and his wife Jo Etta Haley are just arriving with their carload of kids. With them is Grace Rehm, stenographer for the company.

Now arriving are Verna Lower, housewife, and Marilyn Shaffer, co-owners of Clinton I.G.A. Store, and Shirley Swisher a model. With them are Clarence Weygandt, who owns an elevator in Marshallville and his private secretary, Florence Hartzler.

Marion Falb, editor of the Smithville "Sun Tely," is interviewing Jim Musser on the new type of potato he developed with the help of Earnest Rehm, a scientist at the Experiment Station. Also being interviewed is Anita Buchwalter, the technical assistant. Shirley Gordon, a professional photographer is taking pictures.

Janice Sargeant, horse-trainer for the Ringling Bros. Circus, has arrived with her Tennessee Walkers for the children to ride. With her are "Dennis the Menace" (Brillhart) a clown, and Steady Eddie, (Mani) the lion tamer who are going to entertain us this afternoon.

Betty McCay and Phyllis Hochstetler must leave early to catch their boat for Africa where they will join a safari to hunt wild game and take pictures for Walt Disney.

As we look around we can see Gloria Perret, soloist, and Pearl Ault, organist for the Billy Graham Organization. Janice Olson, chief buyer for Woolworths is placing the decorations on the table.

As she finishes, Mrs. Hohenshil calls us all to dinner. After we have eaten, we enjoy an afternoon of entertainment and discussion of old times.

The committee selected "Those Websters" as our play. Ably directed by Mrs. Ramseyer and after much hard work, we succeeded in producing a very successful play even though March 25, the day it was given, turned out to be very snowy.

Soon after this we began preparing for "Myrus," which came out very successfully. The Junior-Senior Banquet was given May 7 and was greatly enjoyed by all.

After some hard work, a few flag-fights, and lots of fun the year ended happily for all.

This has been a grand year for the spirited sophomores of '57. We started with a membership of sixty-eight pupils. Following the traditional, our first big event was electing the following officers:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Richard Carmony
Vice President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Jim Lonier
Secretary	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Nancy Gresser
Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Marjorie Moomaw
Sgt. at Arms	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Pat Mosier
Student Council	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Lois Singer
										Rex Wagers
Social Chairmen	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Louise Singer
										Ted Berkey

One of our big events was receiving our class sweaters which are beige with brown emblems. Our social year started with a Halloween party given by Marjorie Moomaw. Then the first big snow provided us with a sledding party at the Wooster Country Club.

When it comes to sports, the sophomore boys spelled trouble many times to other teams. We also had a good representation in the field of baseball and track. Music can't stop us either as four of our Sophomores won the highest ratings at Kent.

As the end of the year arrives, we look back with glowing satisfaction at our senior trip "kitty" and how it has grown this year. First we had a fish fry. Then we sold basketball schedule pencils and candy. Next we sponsored the F.F.A. advisors banquet, and sold baked goods after the tournament game. The big event of the year was our style show with members of the class modeling fashions and providing entertainment.

Thus we end a very happy year with two more years to look forward to.

Freshmen

There were 80 some students that came ffrom Madisonburg, Marshallville and Smithville to make up the Freshman class. We entered the halls of Smithville High for the first time with a certain amount of dignity and pride even though we were a bit scared. For the first few weeks we had trouble finding the right classes at the right time.

As we progressed and learned to know each other better we decided to elect our officers for the year. With the help of our advisor, Mr. Taylor, we elected the following officers:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Gordon Zook
Vice President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Jim Bupp

Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Karen Steuart
Student Council	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Janet Dilyard Mike Gerig

In class activities, we had a treasure hunt for our class party in December. In March we sponsored the Wooster Scot Band and a hobo day was held in April. Our class also took part in many school activities throughout the year.

The student council is made up of a president elected by the student body, and a boy and girl elected from each class, and a faculty advisor. Mr. McCay serves faithfully as faculty advisor.

The student council served as the voice of students in school government. The council also deals with problems of student administration relation. It is also the duty of the council to select the Junior and Senior ushers, the editor of the annual, Mosaic editor, and stage and sound crews.

The meetings of the council were informal discussions and were scheduled every two weeks. One of the activities sponsored by the student council this year was a ping-pong tournament with a trophy given to the winner.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization that is found in many schools throughout the nation. Unlike some other organizations, the National Honor Society has established certain qualifications which must be met in order to obtain membership. The members must be selected from the Junior or Senior class, and each member must individually be selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. An average grade of "B" should be maintained by the member.

The officers who served this year were:

President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Ralph Smucker
Vice-President	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Martha Hutchison
Secretary-Treasurer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Mrs Ramseyer

We want to thank our advisors for their help and patience in correcting all the Mosaic reports. We also want to thank the rest of the staff for their fine job. With their new ideas and fine co-operation, we tried to put out a better Mosaic.

We know that the Mosaic can be only as good as the content. With this in mind, we tried to have different articles in it, besides the regular "issue reports." Thus striving always to make the Mosaic more interesting to the reader.

We had a wonderful and busy year and ended it with a banquet to which we also invited the faculty.

This year the Home Ec. Club had the largest membership ever with nearly every girl in school a member of the club.

During the year we worked hard at our Home Ec. work in class and also to serve the parent-son banquet for the F.F.A. But we also had lots of fun. We gave a square-dancing party in the gym for the F.F.A. boys and they returned the favor by inviting us to a roller skating party. Our very enjoyable year was climaxed by the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, which we served ourselves, and a trip to Clay's Park shortly after school was out.

This We Believe

We in the F.F.A. believe that to be good citizens, we must be both good leaders and good followers as well. That we must be successful as farmers if we are to lead a happy rural life.

We believe that success in modern agriculture means hard work as it always has, but today it means more. We must apply considerable technical know-how if we are to be efficient. Efficiency is of primary importance today when farmers are involved in a period of readjustment from a wartime to a peacetime economy.

We believe that success as a farmer is the basis for successful leadership, citizenship, and co-operation with one another.

The Junior-Senior chorus, directed by Robert Spencer and composed of 51 voices, took part in the Christmas program and helped to present the Easter Cantata. It also took part in two of the monthly chapel programs and the All-County Festival held in the spring of the year.

Through Mr. Spencer's efforts plus the efforts of the students, the chorus has enjoyed working together and giving the best of their talent of singing.

We've enjoyed working with Mr. Spencer and hope that he enjoyed working with us also.

Because of its small size the orchestra did not participate in many programs as a group, although it did play for one assembly at school. The orchestra rehearsed together all year, but most of the representation was done by groups and ensembles, among which were a trumpet trio and a violin quartet.

Under the able direction of Mr. Spencer the orchestra took part in a spring musical on May 10 to climax the year's activities.

The Driver Training class this year was very large, made up mostly of Juniors with quite a few Sophomores and several Seniors. We believe that Driver Training is one of the most important subjects taught in the school today. We not only learn how to drive by how the car operates, and by using a text book and taking written exams, we learn the proper "etiquette" on the road as well.

Probably the most difficult maneuver that we mastered was parallel parking. Mr. Rowe's commands of, "Turn that steering wheel" still ring in our ears.

It was indeed a thrill when we finally passed our driving test and received our licenses. Now we were on our own to prove that we could be the best drivers on the road.

Lettermen

TOP ROW: B. Stetler, R. Singer, J. Musser, N. Yoho.
BOTTOM ROW: R. Ramseyer, Mr. Berkey, J. Schrock, J. Snoddy.

These seven Smithie lettermen are all Seniors and certainly will be hard to replace. They did most of the playing the past year and deserve their letters for their fine sportsmanship and ability.

Roger Ramseyer, our 6'1" center, was usually high-point man of a game. He had the honor of being selected as a co-center of the first All County team and was a three-year letterman.

John Schrock was our first-string guard, and was an excellent dribbler and defense man. John was a two-year letterman.

Jack Snoddy, another two-year letterman, was a good ball handler and also made his share of the points.

Ronnie Singer was a hard working forward who helped tremendously in many games. He was also a two-year letterman.

Nate Yoho, our scrappy guard, was always in there fighting, and helped win many games with his fighting spirit.

Jim Musser and Bill Stetler, our substitute lettermen, did not see as much action as the other lettermen; but they were always there to give encouragement and could be counted on to play a good game when needed.

Varsity Basketball

FIRST ROW: J. Musser, N. Yoho, R. Singer, R. Ramseyer, J. Schrock, J. Snoddy.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Berkey, C. Hoover—manager, D. Woods, W. Mumaw, B. Stetler, P. Mosier, D. Buchwalter—manager.

The varsity team this year was composed of seven Seniors, two Juniors, and one Sophomore. The fact that none of the lettermen will return next year is a blow, but we are sure that a good team can be built up from the three remaining varsity players plus those from the reserve team.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Berkey, C. Hoover—manager, B. Lonier, J. Kasserman, L. Schrock, T. Berkey, D. Buchwalter—manager.

The reserve basketball team occupies a very important position in school athletics, even though it has to take a back seat to the varsity team. The boys on the reserve team have an attitude that cannot be equaled, that of willingness to work hard for a position they hope to fill in the future on the varsity squad. This year's team was composed of Sophomores and Juniors.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Whenever the Smithies played a game, this peppy quartet, our varsity cheerleaders, could be seen yelling their lungs out, cheering our boys on to victory. But whether we won or lost, their spirit and enthusiasm couldn't be beaten.

For two of these girls, this was their fourth year of high school cheerleading. These girls are Jo Etta Haley and Mary Ann Hahn. This concludes the second year of cheering for Bonnie Wagers and the first for Betty McCay. As these girls are all seniors this is their last year.

A lot of time and effort goes into cheering. Working out routines and conducting pep meetings takes a lot of work. With this in mind we congratulate our varsity cheerleaders for the fine job they did this past year.

Reserve Cheerleaders

These girls led the cheers behind our Reserve Team. All four girls are Freshmen, so we wish them the best of luck for future cheering years.

Dexter Woods

Now here's a little game for you. Match the above names to the right boys in the picture below. Think you can do it? It should be a snap.

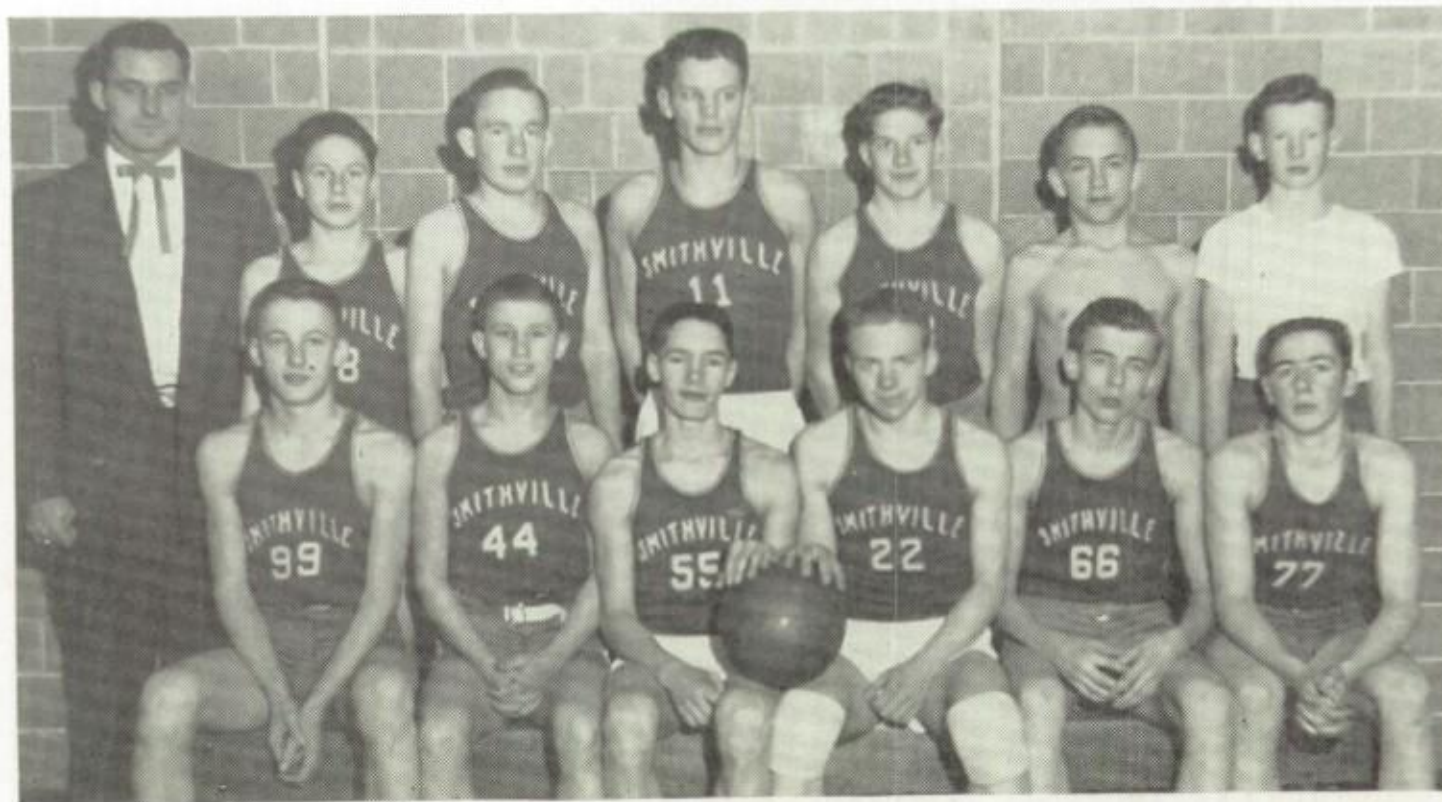

This is the first year for football at Smithville and we started off the year with a new football coach, Mr. Blais. Of course, no games were played this year, as the time was spent in preparing the boys for actual play in the future. For instance, two weeks were spent in scrimmaging. An interesting note is that the average weight of the boys this past year was 135 pounds. We hope that this figure will be higher by next year.

Next season Smithville will play some actual games, but not in league competition. Scheduled for next fall are six games plus the County Pigskin Preview.

A booster club was initiated this past year for the purpose of raising money for new football equipment and for getting the field in shape for play. Right now, we have 40 new sets of gear for the team. We hope they will all be filled sometime in the near future. We are looking forward to the day when football will be a major sport at Smithville High School along with basketball and baseball.

Freshman Team

FIRST ROW: K. Hochstetler, R. Hartzler, B. Gilliland, C. Snoddy, D. Buchwalter, M. Gerig.
SECOND ROW: C. Wheeler, J. Bupp, B. Foster, T. Smith, C. Hoover, R. Dilyard.

The Freshman basketball team was coached by Mr. Blais and had an excellent season, winning 7 and losing 5. But this does not tell the whole story, these boys scored a total of 457 points while allowing their opponents to score only 346 points. These boys are our future varsity players and the future looks bright.
